

As in every Christmas season, many people in Europe, America and Asia, have been enjoying the experience of “gliding” on a skates, with the N-ICE synthetic ice rinks. Many new and regular customers have proven again that besides all the fun they offer, the N-ICE rinks are respectful of the environment and offer great savings on energy and water consumption.