

N-ICE Skating installed its first rink in South Africa. On a famous shopping center, located in Cape Town, this N-ICE synthetic ice rink in "L" shape, will provide a new form of entertainment for the whole family. The installation and training were completed in the middle of last month. South Africa is a very interesting market for N-ice rinks and that's why the new distributor is going to be very busy!.

